Prejudice Bars Miss Anderson

Colored Board Member Walks
Out on Decision

BULLETIN:
WASHINGTON — A steering committee headed by Dr. Charles H. Houston was organized this week to conduct a picket of the District of Columbia Board of Education for barring Miss Marian Anderson, internationally famous singer, from appearing at a local school. Representatives of 24 organizations are back of the huge demonstration.

WASHINGTON — For the second time within a period of three weeks Marian Anderson, the internationally famous contralto, suffered an official rebuff in Washington, D. C., when the District of Columbia board of education, on Thursday, February 16, barred sponsor of the singer's concert from using the auditorium of Central High School (white) for a scheduled appearance. ### Mrs. Howell Reappointed To Board

TRENTON — Mrs. Christine Moore Howell of New Brunswick was reappointed to the Beauty Culture Control Board last Friday by Governor A. Harry Moore. This appointment met with approval throughout the State among Negroes of both political parties. Mrs. Howell was first appointed by Governor Harold G. Hoffman, Republican, and it was thought that she may be replaced by a colored woman Democrat, but her record was so outstanding that colored Democratic leaders throughout the State were in favor of her serving another term. Prominently mentioned for the post was Mrs. Lillian Williams of Jersey City and at one time Mrs. Rosamond Stewart Saunders was considered for the position, but Mrs. Saunders immediately withdrew as a candidate, as her duties with the local Vocational School are such as to require all her time. ### Bruce Out; Winge Asks For Pardon

CALDWELL — Roscoe C. Bruce, Jr., left the Caldwell Penitentiary here Friday morning after serving 15 months for participation in the "fake hold-up" of the Prudential Apartments in April, 1937. His father, Roscoe C. Bruce, Sr., and Bruce's brother met him and sped away in an auto towards New York.

CALDWELL — Four days after Roscoe Bruce walked out of prison, Daniel J. Winge, playboy and ex-assistant manager of the Prudential Apartments, Newark, filed a clemency petition with the State Court of Pardons in Trenton for a pardon after serving six months of an 18 month sentence for embezzling funds from the apartment last spring.

Winge was sentenced July 20, 1938, and if given three months off for good behavior, as was Bruce, he would be freed October 11, 1939.

Walter Drummond of Salem, who was the alleged pawn in the triangle murder of Harry Y. Dolbow on August 2, 1935, asked for a pardon from a life imprisonment sentence. Drummond was accused of the murder of Dolbow by Norman Driscoll, friend of the widow, Mrs. Marguerite Dolbow. All three were sentenced to life imprisonment.

SUMMIT GIRL ATHLETE SLAIN; FRIENDS THROG FUNERAL RITES

"She is a maiden, good without pretense;
Best with plain reason and with sober sense."
—Future Nurse.

SUMMIT — The above forecast of a future career of nursing, printed in the Top, the yearbook for 1936 of the Summit High School, was blasted here Saturday night by a gun shot ending the life of Miss Florence M. Poyas, 22, popular athlete, at the hands, police say, of Harry Marshall Reeves, 30, of 34 Glenwood place.

The girl athlete, who had been working the past two years since graduating from the local high school in an effort to enter nursing school this fall, became involved in an argument with Reeves after Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Minnie Joyner.

According to police, Reeves asked the girl for a loan and when refused became enraged. Authorities say he was drinking at the time of the shooting. Mrs. Joyner succeeded in restoring quiet. A few minutes later when she brought Miss Poyas a glass of water to drink, Reeves is said to have knocked the glass to the floor and drew a gun and fired. The bullet struck the girl in the head, killing her instantly.

Reeves fled immediately and spent Saturday night and Sunday night in the woods in New Providence, nearby. He returned Sunday night and hid in his uncle's cellar, a few doors from the scene of the shooting, when Summit police arrested him.

The slain girl was popular here and described by residents as quiet and respected. In high school she starred in athletics, playing on the school's basketball, field hockey, baseball and volleyball teams. She was president of the Othello and Les Huit Bijoux clubs.

Friends crowded the funeral services for her, which were held Wednesday from Fountain Baptist Church. Large banks of flowers flanked her bier.

Anti-Lynching Bill Offered By Barbour

WASHINGTON — Senator W. Warren Barbour (R., N. J.) introduced in the Senate Monday an anti-lynching bill similar to the Wagner-Nyus measure which was killed in the last session of Congress.

Barbour's bill differed from the Wagner-Nyus proposals in two respects. It defined a "mob" as "two or more persons" intent on lynching instead of "three or more persons." It also would make penalties of the Wagner-Nyus bill applicable only in case of "willful neglect" on the part of peace officers in taking precautions to vent mob violence.

Community Hospital

A hostess tea and musical program was given in the Clinical rooms of the Community Hospital by Hospital Unit No. 1 last Sunday afternoon. The highlights of the program must go to Mother Shuckford, who aroused the entire gathering with her dry talk in regards to another story and the installing of an elevator.

Wm. H. Malloy, who preceded her, seemed to have kindled a fire for an evening of pleasure. He placed the hospital on an equal plane with the church, stating that the church is an agency for the healing of the soul and the hospital is an agency for the healing of the body.

He further stated that it is the duty of the citizens to employ equally as much effort in the support of the hospital as the churches. When God sent his Son, Jesus, on earth to save the world, He too, saved, and healed the bodies of men as well as souls.

The Whittington Four Quartette rendered several spiritual numbers. Mr. James Westley sang a solo.

Escapading In Monmouth

Hi-Folks. Before we start our spell we want to say thank a million to a mighty fine Asbury Park gent, Mr. Sam Rogers, who in company with Russell Weber, ace drummer and vocalist of the Park's W.P.A. band, and Elms Harris, motored your Escapader all the way home after that Scout-Los Amigos game on Friday night. Again, thank, pal. There is no doubt about it, the avenue is very dull now. Arthur Wilson and the boys had quite a time at Newman's Capitol on Friday night when Mr. Cuba Lopez dropped in for a friendly chat. Yes-Man 'twas on solid. A moment, folks. Yes. It's not that man wanting to know did we hear about that grand initial party of the Twinkles. Needle Club held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Uly Keaner of River street in Red Bank on Friday night. Of course we're telling that man that with Lee and Henry Daniels of Dan's Tavern present, it was a "Killer." Others present were: Mrs. Alice Carter, Mrs. Eugene Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kee, Mr. and Mrs. James Dudley, Calite Davis, LeNeil Harris, Lillian Spratley, Mr. and Mrs. Surren, Mr. and Mrs. Gair, Mrs. Maxwell Richardson, Helen Gaudin, Ernest Holmes, Fred Dudley, Wayne Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Peters, John Griffith and Fay Brooks. And some Red Bank Jive and Jabber. Cute Little Lorraine Eades knocked 'em in the eye with her sweet vocalizing at the amateur show held at the "Y" on Thursday and romped away with first honors. From Daytona Beach, Florida, Mrs. L. M. Roberson writes: It's just grand down here and I'm having a fine time.

Negroes of this State are highly incensed over Rutgers' position in this matter. The latter is supported by the State and has always been most liberal in its attitude toward the race. They cannot understand how the school would suddenly throw tradition and honor to the wind and enter a deal with a prejudiced ridden school like the University of Maryland.

The general tendency among our colleges is for the elimination of simple, unprejudiced prejudice in sports. North Carolina, Southern Methodist and Duke offer the most outstanding examples of this new viewpoint.

Negroes point out that Paul Robeson played no small part in lifting Rutgers to a place of distinction in sports and they hardly looked for the school to be so spineless and refuse to take a stand against prejudice in college sports.

Efforts to reach Baxter before press time for a statement were unavailing.

THEY NEVER COME BACK

By MRS. ALICE BROWN

The old saying, "They never come back," is all wrong, and to prove it is wrong, Mr. Samuel Schwartz, the fine old father of the three Schwartz sons, who have made a success of their drug store business on Broad street, Newark, has returned to his first store on Springfield avenue, not merely to build up business, but to be able to greet his old-time friends that he knew so well in the Third Ward when he first started business.

It is really a pleasure to hear the old story, great the many Negro customers most of them by name, as they come into the store and talk about old times. To hear them give you that feeling that if you are in need of medicine or other things you would rather spend your money with this old, good-natured man than to buy elsewhere.

As Mr. Schwartz explained to this writer, he is not compelled to be in the store, as he is proud of the fact that he has one of the few registered colored pharmacists, Edgar O. Giggett, working for him, and that this young man can and does serve his customers in an A. No. 1 fashion, along with the others employed in the store.

Mr. Schwartz states: "I was happy and contented; now that my three sons are able to carry on the business for me, I have nothing to worry about; but having lived in my younger days with colored people, I have a yearning to be back with them once more, and I use this paper (the Herald-Examiner) to extend my personal invitation to my many old acquaintances in Newark."

Commissioner Howell had the untold lucking of the Modern Beautician's Association, and it is noted that she was strongly backed by Dr. Leroy Myers, prominent Democratic leader of Mercer County and close friend of Crawford Jameson, who is to be the next Democratic State Chairman. She will resume her duties at once.

Bergen GOP in Patriotic Ban

RUTHERFORD—The Colored Young Republicans of Bergen County gave a patriotic ball at the Harlem-on-the-Hudson on Washington's Birthday.

PROSPECTUS

Progressive action is both the motive and objective of democracy. If not "Truth," then the SPIRIT OF TRUTH will make men free and creative. They serve RACE or GROUP or SELF best who like Roger Williams, would claim for themselves no right or privilege which is not granted to all men equally.

SHALL WE FIGHT?

President Roosevelt has sent an urgent request to Congress for $552,000,000 to finance a minimum program for the necessity of Defense in DEMOCRATIC AMERICA. Since world democracy is on the defensive America's frontiers are not on the Rhine, the Panama Canal, or any other particular spot, but are to be found, as Benjamin Franklin rightly says: wherever the principles of democratic government are at stake.

Speaking of DEMOCRATIC FRONTIERS, we as a Race feel that QUITE A FEW INSIDE THE U.S.A. NEED DEFENDING. PERHAPS WE SHOULD SAY—THAT NEED ATTENTION.

First—we would like to know when WILL AMERICAN DEMOCRATS see the ABSURDITY OF THEIR pretensions to DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES IN THE FACE OF THE SCANDAL OF NEGRO YOUTH AT WEST POINT and ANNAPOLIS?

Our personal feelings towards war, war-makers, and the conditions that lead to war, are not of great concern here.

What we are concerned mightily with here is: the right of Negro Youth who desire to serve their country in the military—to be given equal, democratic treatment.

The other FRONTIER is the right of Negro Youth to share in the training to be offered the 20,000 young flyers the President is asking for. Let any so-called Democrat come forth with any argument against the right of Negroes to this training.

Segregate Negroes NOW and Negroes may draw the COLOR LINE in 1940, or whenever THAT WAR does come.

Make the U. S. Safe for Democracy; and the U. S. A. black and white—may be solid-minded for making the WORLD safe for democracy!

An undemocratic AMERICA is scarcely in a position to aid the embattled DEMOCRACY OF THE WORLD.

Segregation Means Less
For the Segregated

Segregation, we have pointed out time and again, is a technique of OPPRESSION..... It is a denial of equal rights.

DEMOCRACY means, among other things, EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY.

Show us the man who will dare try to reconcile the practice of segregation with democracy..... and we'll show you a Quake, a Fake, a Charlatan.

If ever there was a time the black minority of this country, our state, and this community should fight discrimination and segregation, it is NOW! Not only are our democratic rights challenged, but the whole theory and practice of democracy is challenged by segregation.

The argument that segregated institutions give Negroes more jobs is, to us, as despicable as it is unworthy of a free people. Our fight is a fight for equal opportunity, equal sharing in every phase of our institutional life. We repudiate Jim-Crow and every indignity associated with it.

The fight for EQUAL OPPORTUNITY is NOT a fight for segregated institutions. It is a struggle for institutions open to one and all alike..... whether as inmates, workers, assistants, directors, teachers, principals, or what not.

Those Negroes who are not willing to join this struggle and take their chances on the REWARD OF MERIT, are, in our opinion, unworthy to hold positions in the public service. We see no reason under the sun why the PRINCIPLES OF MERIT should exclude Negroes from equal opportunity to fill positions in the public service.

Inferior feeds on inferiority. Segregated schools, inferior by design, breed inferior teachers and inferior complexes in their pupils. The great wrong of segregated schools is that they take children at their most impressionable YEARS AND SYLVY, INSIDIOUSLY, build in to their sub-conscious minds the crippled complexes, which impede them throughout their adult life.

Is this not just the design of segregation?

A free people will never submit to this kind of OPPRESSION without a fight.

We pay our taxes into a common fund, city, county and state. Are we content with LESS than a common application of these funds to the welfare and development of the people—of whom we are an important part?

The Reader Speaks

COMMENTS ON

I want to take this means to commend the Herald-News on the high type of journalism and integrity as manifested by the editors and all associates of the paper. I earnestly hope that this paper will continue to grow and that the citizens of the State of New Jersey will look with a great deal of pride on having such a newspaper as the Herald-News. I also urge all the good citizens to subscribe in order that the circulation might grow and that New Jersey will again be on the map in the field of journalism.

SELLING OUT

Due to the great and ever-increasing demand for the Herald-News here, I will appreciate it very much if you will see that the boys selling the paper here are provided with more copies than heretofore. Each week I hear from persons complaining that they have not received the Herald-News, and upon investigation find that it is usually because the boy assigned to that particular vicinity is sold out. This is also true of other sections in which I am interested.

Sincerely thanking you, I am
Yours truly,
PATERNAL READER.

Sojourner Truth

(In connection with the nationwide observance of Negro History Week we present an interesting biographical sketch on Sojourner Truth.)

When Sojourner Truth, great Negro woman abolitionist, went to see Abraham Lincoln she was not a stranger to him. He had known of her long fight for the freedom of her people long before she, herself, knew of Lincoln.

It was not strange that Lincoln should have heard of Sojourner Truth. The Negro woman who was born a slave about 1800 in Ulster County, New York, and who never throughout her long life learned to read or write: was known by those in high places as well as by the great masses of her people for her uncompromising fight against slavery and for the rehabilitation of the ex-slaves after the war. In her "Book of Life" which she carried wherever she travelled are testimonials from the greatest abolitionists of the day—William Lloyd Garrison, Frederick Douglass, Wendell Phillips, Charles Sumner, to name a few. Similar tribute to her fearless struggle for equality of woman was paid by Susan B. Anthony and Lucretia Mott.

In the Hall of Congress, in churches and meeting-rooms, on street corners—anywhere an audience was to be found—went Sojourner Truth, travelling thousands of miles without funds, alone and unaided. Her audiences were not always friendly.

During the Civil War, when Sojourner Truth was over sixty, she nursed the wounded and advised them how to adapt themselves to freedom.

Sojourner Truth kept up her travels and speeches until she was well past eighty. People were amazed at the vitality and intelligence of this aged woman who lost none of her fire and passion to struggle for the rights of her people.

Roselle

By HAROLD STAPLES

Last week we made an error. Instead of the Junior Stewardesses giving the Valentine Ball it was the "Scotch Flairs," with the theme ranging from eight years to 15 years of age. They played games, sang and recited poems and elected their King and Queen of Hearts. Miss Audrey Smith was elected Queen, while Randall Young was selected as King. Miss Helen Bykes was the prize for the prettiest costume.

We are glad to see Mr. Hugh Smith and Miss Estman up and around. Mrs. Hattie Scott, Mrs. Eleanor Atkins and Mr. Thomas Asby are on the road to recovery.

At a return engagement of the Silverstone Quartet of Philadelphia will be held at the Second Baptist Church on March 2. This affair is for the benefit of the Coal Club of the church, of which Mrs. Brantley is president.

Raritan A. C.'s In First Dance Affair

Madison

By BERNICE SHULER

KEYPORT:—Everyone has been waiting and much talk has been going around the town concerning the Original Raritan A. C.'s first dance affair which will be held at the Keyport Community House on Friday night, February 24.

Fat Stuff and his eight Little Shuffles of rhythm have been practicing new rifts in order to assure the many jitterbugs and rug cutters who will attend of a grab time.

In the past the Raritan A. C.'s have always drawn the large crowds to their affairs and Manager Frank Leroy Major Jr., is confident that a record crowd will change partners and dance, so he wants you to know that they'll be waiting for you to come out and dance away the blues.

The Baptist Church had as their speaker Sunday the Rev. C. C. Church, who gave a wonderful talk on "Race Relationship." The Junior Choir gave their renditions of several Negro spirituals. Two chicks are now in the midst of a feud over a young and popular man of Drew.

I wonder why Jimmie Coeman didn't come down Tuesday night. He really had the chicks worried, especially Juanita.

Last Tuesday "Just Us Girls" won over the Cranford girls with a score of 10-7.

I hope you are saving March 17 to come to our Amateur Show and Dance that I spoke to you about a couple of weeks ago.

All - Around

By LILLIAN B. HUFF

True Southern Hospitality

Was the rule at the "Wileys" home in East Orange for the past week. Friends from here and over flowing through the spacious rooms of one of Jersey's leading Mayfairite's home. Lillian's charming personality won her so many friends that she groups them so as to be sure never to miss anyone when she gives her "fame parties". Starting Sunday the parade was on with Dr. Walter I. Delph, noted surgeon of New York City, with his mother seated at the dinner table. Monday the Misses Bert Norwood and Edith McDougall, personable young school marm of Quaker City, who were home guests of Dr. Buckner's, dropped in to say "howdy". Mrs. Spaulding Berry and Mrs. Oliver Brown popped in to complete the evening's pleasure.

More . . . More . . . and . . . More

Saturday afternoon . . . holiday for many . . . brought Mrs. William Sutherland and daughter, Muriel, popular "deb" with their guest, Professor H. L. Bible of South Carolina, to visit with Doc and the Misses. Near midnight the newly redecorated recreation room of the "Wileys" was the setting for a delectable supper served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Louis Middleton of Gotham. Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Harris of Washington, who were week-end guests of the Middletons. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rivers. Dr. and Mrs. Harry Mickey and Mrs. Alene Saunders. Hatch Norris of Petersburg, Va., who was visiting with his brother, Dr. Flemming Norris. From the sounds of merriment echoing from within. Everything was just "hoty-toty".

Swank . . . Swankier . . . Swankiest

'Twas the Alcibiades supper-dinner given in honor of their sixteenth birthday last Friday night at the Mecca Temple in New York City. Many of Jersey's leading lights were attracted across the river that evening. In between courses Dr. and Mrs. Walter Alexander of Orange were seen gliding around the polished floor. Mrs. Alexander in a black gown. Dr. and Mrs. Harry Mickey. "Billy" in an exotic affair. Dr. and Mrs. Norman Cotton of Paterson. The Madam in a plaid dress that made her look. . . so charming. Dr. and Mrs. George Bell of Montclair. Mr. and Mrs. Dorland Henderson of East Orange. Watching the floor show from the sidelines were Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Wiley of East Orange. . . Lella, gowned in an artist's creation of pleated black chiffon, the skirt set off by a border of hand-painted flowers. Her hair was accented by a French band-made chapeau. Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Granger. Dr. and Mrs. Fleming Norris. Dr. and Mrs. Curtis. Following the dance many of the folks journeyed to the home of Dr. and Mrs. Middleton. . . where, among many delicious, champagne flowed in abundance.

Turkey Dinner "Delish"

Such a nice time Friday night. Dainty Helen Nettis, in a quilted wine satin house coat, played hostess to the popular Beau Monde "gals" at their monthly dinner meeting. Jean Casen's very serious ideas of marriage, sending us off into gales of laughter. Carolyn Robinson looking pleased because she had landed a position. . . Victoria Biscotti of Newark, very sweet in a metallic and blue crepe affair. Edith Cox, diminutive matron, who claims eighteen years of wedded bliss. Frances Scott gathering up everything to take to daughter Pat. Ruth Hurd looking a little harassed, as all brides-to-be get to look sooner or later. Natalie Clayton talking up the "P" play, which will be March 17th. . . Geo Roberts and Elvise May looking as contented housewives. . . Keeno, the rave of the evening, brought prizes to Frances Scott and yours truly. . . But I like my red cell collapse hat best. All interested in contributing hat for said box. . . just drop by office. Edith and Victoria took back to their friends guests' prizes. Ruby Grandy made the third guest. . . getting ready to leave we admired her fur-trimmed headgear. . .

Did We Envy Her

As my neighbor, Mrs. Frank King of Bertha avenue, Vaux Hall, rushed around Monday morning gaily packing for her trip to Winstock, Vermont. . . where she intends to take part plenty in winter sports. . . especially skiing. . . she will be the guest of Mrs. George Graves. . . Wednesday they planned to attend the Olympic try-outs at Lake Placid. . . will also make a flying trip to Montreal. . .

Nosey Notes

Gerlie Stith is very definitely that way about George Burgess (Vaux Hall). . . she is wearing one of his medals around her neck. . . Earl Richardson, diminutive bundle of jittersology is wearing a diamond on the right finger. The Bunnys Browns of East Orange are expecting a precious bundle from the side very soon. . . That Watson and wife, Fannie, can't decide on blue or pink handkerchiefs for the new inhabitant next month. . . Folks are saying that Roselle's eligible bachelor for so long will desert that field in June and trek down the aisle with that charming school marm of Burlington. . . she was in town over the week-end and was John Turner happy. . . Was Eschobedo Posey smiling Monday when we ran in to tell her of her brand new job as senior investigator and wish her well. . .

There's Always Fair Weather

When old friends get together. . . so you know there was plenty moon. . . plenty stars. Saturday night. . . some of the old bunch of years ago thought up the idea of surprising Cedie and Buckie Funderburke of Laurel avenue, Vaux Hall. . . And were they surprised. . . in the party were Ansel and Rella Jacobs, Rella telling us about the matinee she enjoyed that afternoon. . . Cedie Hainston a little sleepy from the night before, coming in with Larry Dancy. . . Lucy and John Brown, as per usual. . . with the help of waffles and spaghetti the evening went flying along. . .

Little Slam Club Host To Union County Socialites

WESTFIELD.—Last Monday afternoon the spacious home of Dr. and Mrs. Howard Brock, 417 West Broad street, was the scene of much festivity, for many "Union County Mayfairites" were gathered there for the meeting of the Little Slam Bridge Club.

Throughout the palatial home spring flowers were in abundance, lending a note of hospitality and fragrant atmosphere. The ladies, all members of "Jersey's smart set," garbed in spring creations of the latest trend, were treated to cocktails and hors d'oeuvres by the charming hostess, Evelyn Vivian Brock, before sitting down to a palatable luncheon.

Members present were Mesdames L. G. Brown, J. T. Davis, J. L. Jordan, F. G. Shirley of Elizabeth; A. G. Robinson of Madison; C. C. Polk of Roselle and A. L. Thompson of Plainfield. Guests were Mesdames M. H. Thompson, Hubert Humphries, R. H. Thompson and J. J. Byrd of Westfield. Club prizes were awarded to Mrs. Shirley of Elizabeth and Mrs. Thompson of Plainfield. Mrs. R. H. Thompson and Mrs. J. J. Byrd of Westfield were the lucky winners of guest prizes.

Miss Amelia Morrison Takes Sacred Vows At Railway Church

RAHWAY.—Miss Amelia B. Morrison of 164 Monroe street and Judson E. Bryant, 120 East Seventh avenue, Roselle, were joined together in holy wedlock last Thursday by the Rev. C. H. Watkins, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, before a large gathering of friends and relatives.

One of the most brilliant weddings of the season took place Sunday afternoon when Miss Gertrude Antwine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Antwine of 72 Bruce street was united in holy wedlock with Robert Foster, son of Mrs. Estelle Foster of 96 Prince street at the 15th Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Dr. L. B. Ellerson, pastor, officiated at the wedding ceremony. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white satin gown, with a tulle veil, which was carried by little Barbara Woodburn. The maid of honor, Miss Angela Walters, was attired in a lovely pink gown.

The bridemaids were Winnie Antwine, Vivian Charles, Anna Mae Scott, Julia White and Mary Puryear.

Sally's Chatterings

Cutting short our birth and hasty, WASHINGTON's natal day in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-nine, ushered in ASH WEDNESDAY, commencement of period of sacrifice and abstinence for all persons fundamentally sound in the Gospel, whether they be BAPTIST, EPISCOPALIAN, METHODIST, CATHOLIC or PRESBYTERIAN, causing us to take on some form of Lenten season consciousness, commemorating the forty days' fasting and prayer sent by our Lord and Saviour in the wilderness preparatory to the SUPREME SACRIFICE. "THIS LIFE THAT WE MIGHT LIVE." So hatching to get in a few activities we find BLANCHETTE MORSE, president; LETTIE BROWN, vice-president; WILHELMINA WILLIAMS, secretary; ARRA PORTER GOODE, MABELLE EASON PAIGE, EVELYN EASON and MARION REED of CHIEF AMIES meeting at the home of Evelyn to complete plans for what bids to be the swankiest SUPPER-DANCE in Jersey in this age of scant. These young ladies, tracing their lineage back to generations of men and women who have stood for moral worth and integrity in their communities, anticipate a formal presentation to the public, and it is bruited about that a member of Jersey's pioneer family and A-1 civic and social leader will set the ball in motion by presenting the group on or about APRIL 29th. Speaking of setting dials ariling, our mail discloses the fact that a BEIDAL SHOWER given in honor of RUTH HURD of Elizabeth by DAISY MULDON on SATURDAY, the 25th, has started things a humming in that direction, and from all indications the merchandise of Newark and vicinity are being swamped by Jersey's younger social set with demands for items worthy of such a charming bride-elect. SPEAKING OF BRIDES, we were out! Rutherford way visiting the recent bride and groom, MILDRED and DYRWOD WILLIAMS, and found them comfortably settled in their home, beautiful and exquisite. A veritable dream house, with surroundings conducive to a happy life ever after. SPEAKING OF HAPPY LIVES, the REV. WILLIAM REVIS (Rev. "Bill" to his best friends), pastor of Friendship Baptist Church, is happy in the fact that he is up and around and that so many friends and members hastened his recovery with their good-will visits and solicitations. SPEAKING OF SOLICITATIONS reminds us that we were solicitous of our good friend AURELIA HOWARD's whereabouts to the extent that we successfully contacted her via the press last week, and all our dither was for naught, as we learned she is doing nicely in the New York school system as a teacher and "not out in this cold world alone." We certainly appreciate the efficacy of the press. AND SPEAKING OF APPRECIATION brings to our mind the fact that the MUSIC APPRECIATION GUILD of Northern New Jersey, under the leadership of VESTILIA LESTER with LORETTA HAMMOND, THOMAS BELL, ELIZABETH MADDOCK and LOLA LYNN holding prominent positions in the set-up, will bring to Jerseyites an outstanding concert on MARCH 19th. SPEAKING OF CONCERTS reminds us of the VALENTINE TEA at which 119 persons were present, sponsored by the DRAMA STUDY SOCIETY OF THE ORANGES with RUTH B. FRYER, president; BESSIE HUNTER, secretary; ALICE GROSS, treasurer; HELEN ANTHONY, . . . and VIOLEA H. CARRAWAY, director, on last Sunday. . . participants from Gotham playing major roles, such as MILDRED MARSHALL rendering guitar selections; HUGH JONES, dramatic reader; the MISSES LEONA and BARBARA SMITH in dramatic readings with intense accompaniment, and MR. ALLEN ACKERMAN, representative of the N. Y. Age, speaking. Also our good friend, BERTHA BLAND, explaining the intricacies of Child Service.

Band and Ivy Anderson At Kruegers Fri.

Duke Ellington... the master of them all... comes to Krueger's Auditorium on Friday night, March 3rd, for the elaborate Primer Baile given by the Pals of Pleasure.

Duke Ellington... the master musician, whose music is declared by all the only music that is truly Harlem in style and the swinger of such recent hits as "I Let a Song Go Out of My Heart," and the immortal classics in jazz such as "Mood Indigo," "Sophisticated Lady," and "It's a Sentimental Mood," returns to Newark after setting an attendance record at the Paramount here recently.

The Duke brings that supreme delineator of song, Ivy Anderson, with his aggregation. The same band which broke records at the Cotton Club, which captured the hearts of Europe in a recent tour abroad and the only band to be featured in an international broadcast, is expected to set seismic and swing fans to dancing on next Friday night.

"Gunga Din" Hit Picture Of The Year, Is At Proctor Theatre Now

Colorful, mysterious and unfathomable, India has been a favorite setting for screen offerings since the early days of pictures. The latest drama to have that glamorous land, as its locale is "Gunga Din," spectacular film based on Rudyard Kipling's ballad which has its setting among the barren mountains of India's northern frontier, which comes to Proctor's Theatre, starting Washington's birthday.

The period of the picture is some fifty years ago, when England was bringing law and order to the wild tribesmen of the border country. As the moving force of a new outgrowth, the natives revive the outlawed and supposed extinct cult of Thugges, old strangling religion of India, and start a campaign aimed at driving the hated white men out of the land.

Cary Grant, Victor McLaglen and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. have the stellar roles in "Gunga Din." Joan Fontaine has the only feminine role, as the fiancée of one of them; Sam Jaffe is in the title role of the water carrier, and Edward G. Robinson and Albert Bierman are prominent as two of the Thug leaders.

Filmed among the peaks of California's High Sierras, which greatly resemble the mountainous border of Northwestern India, the picture attains a high degree of realism. For RKO Radio George Stevens was both producer and director.

Calloway to Play for Guild Ball March 1st

NEW YORK—Preparations for the second annual ball of the Negro Actors' Guild of America shifted definitely into "hurry-hurry" Monday with the announcement that Cab Calloway and his Cotton Club orchestra will serve the feature musical dish of the evening's festivities.

In addition to Calloway, the dance menu includes the musical courses of Erskine Hawkins and his aggregation, and of Al Cooper and his Savoy Sultans, thereby guaranteeing no possible dearth of instrumental variety. All this takes place Wednesday night, March 1, at the Savoy Ballroom, universally accepted as the "Home of Swing."

Miss Gordon Returns

Louise Gordon, popular night club entertainer, has fully recovered from her recent attack of pneumonia and is expected to join the show at the Dodge's Grill this week. One of North Jersey's most-favored entertainers, Louise will be welcomed back by night-lifers who will be on hand to give her a rousing reception.

Rudy Vallee Tops Another Hit Show at Paramount

Starting Friday on the Adams' Paramount-Newark stage, in person, will be that well known star of stage, screen and the biggest radio personality, Rudy Vallee and his Connecticut Yankees. With Rudy will be seen the "Gentlemen Songsters," Joey Faye, in an unusual brand of comedy, Seab Waring, and his nonsense and Lorraine and Rogman, comedy team.

RUDY VALLEE

Rudy's first big engagement was at the Helix Club on January, 1928. He formed the Connecticut Yankees for this engagement. He went on the air from this club and there followed success after success. In the spring of 1929 he broke all records at the New York Paramount with a run of 10 weeks.

He has starred in the movies, "Vegebond Lover," "Sweet Music" and "Gold Diggers in Paris." He played in George White's Scandals with Alice Faye as leading lady in 1931 and has made a long series of recordings for Victor, Columbia, Durium and Victor-Bluebird.

On the screen one of the most famous "blues" songs of the age has now been made into a great motion picture, "St. Louis Blues," which stars Dorothy Lamour and Lloyd Nolan. It is a story of Show Boat Life on the Mississippi. Others in the star-studded cast include Jerome Cowan, Maxine (Loch Lomond) Sullivan, William Fravelly, Cliff Nazario (Jack Benny's double talk man) and the King's Men and Matty Hanneke and his orchestra.

This great two for one stage and screen show begins a week's engagement at the Paramount, Friday.

JITTERBUG... ON THE LINE

by Fani Richardson

COMMENTS HAVE IT THAT Artie Shaw and Benny Goodman are making headlines out of famous blunders including: Benjie Hawkins, Cary Kirk, Duke Ellington, Jimmy Dorsey, Count Basie, Tommy Dorsey, Chick Webb, Jimmie Lunceford, Bunny Berrigan and Lou Armstrong. BUT...the majority of the following commentators don't agree:

Well, personally I don't think so. In my mind Duke Ellington is tops and second is Cab Calloway, whose name does not appear.

"Arties Shaw and Benny Goodman are only rated high because they are 'outies.' Count Basie can draw my pennies any day."

JIM CROWDED.

"When it comes to judging a fine band, Shaw, Goodman and the rest don't even score with Jimmie Lunceford. He is the master. Here is the way they rate with me: Jimmy Lunceford, Count Basie, Duke Ellington."

"Whoever thinks Benny Goodman can't outswing all hands is a drse. Who rose first as king?... Benny."

F. D. R.

BEATS THE REST.

"As long as Basie plays his ten numbers he's alright; but after he's played them, then what? I'll take the Duke."

EVERY TUB.

"Local 802 has two great assets to swing, to which no others can be compared—Louis Armstrong and Bunny Berrigan. They both blow a mean piece of trumpet, which offers no competition."

"My first rate choice is no other than Jimmie Lunceford. What he doesn't swing ain't worth swinging."

"In regards to Louis Armstrong, he really is a fraud. All he does is feature himself. Take it from one who knows."

SWING CAT.

"Giving credit where credit is due, I still think Benny Goodman rates first. Teddy Wilson and Lunel Hampton really come on in the trio."

KEEP SWINGING.

"I don't agree that Shaw and Goodman have swung all sewed up. My favorites are Duke Ellington and Chick Webb (but not without Ellie)."

"I'm not a jitterbug, so you folks can keep your swing. Give me the mellow rhythms of Andy Kirk. He really makes me feel unnecessary."

"The trouble with the cats and the Duke is, the longer he stays on them are too hard."

HIPPED CAT.

"Benny Goodman's greatest loss was master of the skins, Gene Krupa. With him went the greater part of Goodman's rhythm section, but I am still an ardent fan."

H. K. S.

PERSONALITY KID.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—"Jimmy" Parker of Red Bank, N. J., scored the alarming total of 30 points as Howard defeated Hampton last week.
